St. Olaf Supplement Essay (200 to 500 words)

In addition to the essay you are asked to write for the Common Application, we require a second essay. You needn't conduct any research for this essay. Rather, it offers you a chance to give a voice and tone to your application.

St. Olaf College is a learning community that draws on the talents and perspectives of students and faculty with a variety of backgrounds and a wide range of interests. What has led you to apply, and how will St. Olaf College help you pursue your passions?
